PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the South Dakota cash farm income exceeded one billion dollars in 1968, and;

WHEREAS, the sales of cattle and calves provided 50.6% of the cash farm income, the highest percentage since 1924, and;

WHEREAS, an estimated one billion dollars is expended in services and products to support the cattle industry;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Frank L. Farrar, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim the month of September, 1969, as and urge all citizens to be aware of and devoted to the acknowledgement of the contributions the beef industry has provided to the economy of South Dakota..

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this twenty-eighth day of August in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine.
